Part 21b – Declaration for policyholders resident outside Ireland

Policyholders resident outside Ireland are required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners to make the following declaration, which is in a format authorised by them, in order to receive payments without deduction of Irish tax.

I/We declare that:

1. I/We have read the explanation of the terms detailed in the notes entitled 'Residence Definition' below.
2. I am/We are the policyholder in respect of which this declaration is being made;
3. My/our principal home is in the UK, Channel Islands or the Isle of Man and that I am/we are habitually resident in the UK, Channel Islands or the Isle of Man.
4. I am/We are not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland; and
5. I/We hereby undertake to inform Standard Life International of any change in my/our country of residence during the life of the policy.

Residence definition – Individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if she/he:

1. Spends 183 days or more in Ireland in that tax year; or
2. Has a combined presence of 280 days in Ireland, taking into account the number of days spent in Ireland in that tax year together with the number of days spent in Ireland in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in Ireland will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Up to 31 December 2008, presence in Ireland for a day means the personal presence of an individual at the end of the day (midnight). From 1 January 2009, presence in Ireland for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Ordinary residence definition– Individual

The term "ordinary residence" as distinct from "residence" relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in Ireland for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in Ireland ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which she/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in Ireland in 2004 and departs from Ireland in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year in 2007.

This declaration is authorised by the Irish Revenue Commissioners. It may be subject to inspection by the Revenue. It is an offence under Irish law to make a false declaration.

This declaration must be signed by Policyholders who are neither resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland.

It may also be signed by a person who holds power of attorney from the policyholder. A copy of the power of attorney should be furnished with this declaration.
